

About The Therapist

"My mission is to help improve others health and everyday life through massage. In addition to treatment work I enjoy educating people about body sciences, muscle function, massage, and self-care."

I am Emma Lani Bufalini a licensed massage therapist in Indiana and Illinois. I am a graduate of Cortiva Institute of Massage Therapy in Seattle, WA. Before relocating to Indiana I had a practice of 4 years in Durham NC. I specialized in medical massage, sports massage, and pain management. I actively stays involved in continuing education, NC BMBT activity, and AMTA research and activity to keep up to date with new and current massage standards and techniques.

Safety Continued

For your health and safety your therapist will:

- wear a mask when working on-location
- will engage in proper hand washing in between clients and use hand sanitizer
- sanitize all equipment in between each clients
- use clean sheets and linens or one use coverings for each client
- do a health intake with each appointment
- gloves can be worn upon request
- Clients who are vaccinated do not need to wear masks but those who are unvaccinated will be required to wear a mask throughout the visit
